

Family Access Network

FAN is a community based organisation offering a range of services:

Creative Life Skills Programs offer a range of free workshops that include budgeting, creative skills, cooking, skill development and self-esteem

The Volunteer Program links Mentors with young people who are interested in shared common interests, hobbies or goals

The Children's Program - Early Years provides services to young pregnant and parenting families and accompanying children.

The Life Skills Program is funded principally by the City of Whitehorse, with funding for some activities augmented by additional philanthropic support.

Young Mums' Group

For pregnant and parenting women aged 15 to 25 and their children

What Is The Young Mums ' Group?

The Young Mum's Group provides social and educational activities for young mum's aged 15 to 25 and their accompanying children

How Does The Group Run?

Group activities are planned by the young mums. We aim to support young mothers to form social networks and share experiences in parenting.

What Does The Group Do?

Provides a safe & friendly environment for discussion and information on a range of children and mothers health and safety issues.

Social outings such as going to the movies and picnics.

Cooking, art and craft.

Child friendly activities.

ALL IDEAS ARE WELCOME

What Are The Benefits ?

Meet other young mums who understand & share similar experiences. Gain support .

Quote from one Young Mum:

"I have really enjoyed watching my children play with others and learn to socialise. I love the cooking.."

Another Young Mum said:

"I like the pampering and time-out we've had"
