

Family Access Network Inc

Making a Difference in Young People's Lives since 1981

VOLUNTEER PROGRAM

Volunteers play a vital role in the continuing care and support of young people at Family Access Network by contributing in areas such as;

Lead Tenants; Provide enhanced housing support to assist in the development of living skills by role modelling appropriate behaviour in everyday conditions in a shared house environment

Mentors; provide enhanced support and one on one long term friendship to a young person strengthening self-worth, trust and relationships

Child Play Supervisors; Child Play Supervisors engage in a range of child friendly, age appropriate activities with children while their parents attend appointments, meet with Support Workers or participate in workshops attached to various FAN Programs.
