

Family Access Network (FAN) is an innovative, client focused organisation based in Box Hill providing services for young people aged 16-25 years. We support single young people, LGBTIQ+ young people, pregnant/parenting young families and accompanying children who are experiencing or at risk of homelessness.

We are currently seeking applications for a Senior Youth Support Worker. The Senior Youth Support Worker is a key member of the Client Services Team, responsible for delivering comprehensive case management to young people, young families, and accompanying children who are experiencing or at risk of homelessness. This role also involves supervising and mentoring a small team, ensuring high-quality service delivery across a range of programs.

The position requires a motivated individual with energy, enthusiasm, vision and commitment to work in a dynamic and supportive team environment. Experienced practitioner is preferred with minimum 3 years' experience, relevant tertiary qualification, ideally in youth or social work. SCHADS Award according to qualifications with additional employee benefits. This position is ongoing and .8 to .9 EFT negotiable for the successful candidate.

FAN offers many employee benefits including flexible working hours, RDOs, access to an EAP and corporate leave at the end of year.

The deadline for applications is Thursday 15th May 2025 11.59pm and should be emailed to: fan@fan.org.au

Only full applications that address all elements of the Key Selection Criteria will be considered.

Interviews will be held on Tuesday 20th May 2025

Questions may be directed to Oriana Phutully, Team Leader on 9890 2673 or ophutully@fan.org.au.

First Nations People, LGBTIQ+ people, people with disability, people of colour, public housing residents or people with a lived experience are encouraged to apply.
